Since Oakland Catholic High School first opened its doors in 1989, many young ladies have graced our hallways and, in doing so, have helped make us one of the top 50 Catholic high schools in the nation. As the region's only all-girls Catholic college preparatory school, Oakland Catholic students excel in science, languages, mathematics, the humanities, the arts, athletics and more. Oakland Catholic graduates go on to matriculate at the country's finest colleges and universities, including Harvard, Georgetown, Notre Dame, Pitt, Penn State, Duquesne, Boston College, MIT, Princeton and Carnegie Mellon, to name a few.

Please contact Director of Admissions, Caitlin Marchiano, at 412-682-6633 x253 or email cmarchiano@oaklandcatholic.org for more information.
